Official announcement of the total number of persons who attended the opening of the Exposition on Saturday will not be made known until the count has been verified beyond question, according to President Francis. The count was completed today by Chief E. N. White, of the department of admissions, and submitted to directors of admission, S. B. Gregg, who in turn submitted it to President Francis. President Francis said that owing to the great interest manifested throughout the country because of guessing contests, every precaultion would be taken to avoid a mistake and the submitted total would be again verified and probably be announced to-morrow.

FINDINGS IN THE COURT OF INQUIRY

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2,-That no further proceedings be taken is the recommendation of the court of inquiry appointed to investigate the explosion in the after turret of the Missouri on the after turret of the April 13th. The court finds the explosion was due to a "flare-back," caused by an inexplicable combination of oxygen with certain, usually latent, gases in smoke-was due to a combination of oxygen with inexplicable combination of oxygen with certain, usually latent, gases in smokeless powder.

The officers and crew of the Missouri not only are relieved from all responsibility for the accident, but are warmly commended for their bravery shown after its occurrence in rescuing the victims. It was brought out in the evidence submitted to the court that there was not an extraordinary amount of powder in the handling room, nor were there more officers and men in the turret or handling room than were necessary for record target practice. Among the witnesses who testified before the court were the two men who jumped into the magazine room and closed the door after them as soon as they saw the flame, and one of the two survivors in the handling room. The other survivor was unable to leave the hospital, so the court took his testimony at his bedside.

Father Gleason, the chaplain of the Missouri, testified that he had received from a dying scamman a statement that he saw Lieutenant Davidson, who was the officer in charge of the after turret crew, look into the gun, and then he saw flames burst forth and could remember nothing else. It is stated that there was absolutely nothing in the evidence to show that Lieutenant Davidson had failed in his duty in any respect.

One of them squared off to punch the negro boy, whereupon the negro ducked and started at the white boy, who selzed the black head under one arm and pummeled the negro's face at a lively rate. Two or three other smell white boys chipped in a few upper cuts, while the colored boy being in chancery, as it were, could only take his medicine. In a moment several men, white and colored, were attracted and the combatants separated. There was no further trouble, though at one time a miniature race riot seemed imminent. The black was full of fight after release from the predicament in which he laid put himself by ducking. About this time a policeman appeared on the scene, but the combatants had been led away by men and the affair ended without serious damage.

The base-ball team of the Richmond College will this afternoon play a practice game with the Richmond Academy, its neighbor and junior, at the Broad Street Park. In fact, they intend to give the college boys a fight for the honors, and may add a doze of defeat. This is the first game the two have ever scheduled. The positions and players of the two nines are thus given: College—Lankford, catcher; Woodlin or Cardoza, pitchers; Talman, snort-stop; Sutherland, first base; Handy, second; Robinson, third; Mench, left field; Ish, center; Hayes, right.

The game will be a warming up and practice for the championship game of next Saturday, when Richmond College will meet her old rival, Randolph-Macon, in the game which both would rather win than any other on their schedules, This is the crucial game of the intercollegiate season, and promises to show both teams at their best. day-Game Saturday.
